Owned and managed by John and Gail Woodford

Terms of Business

Deposits

We do not, as a rule, ask for deposits for funerals.

We do require that fees for unattended or direct cremations be paid in advance.

We may ask for certain third-party fees to be paid in full at the time of arranging the funeral.

These may include but are not exclusive to:

- Cemetery fees
- Crematoria fees
- Medical fees

Our Funeral Director will discuss this with you at the time of making the funeral arrangements.

Payment Arrangements

The funeral account is due for payment within fourteen days of the date of our account, unless otherwise agreed by us in writing.

If you fail to pay us in full on the due date, we may charge you interest:

- at a rate of 4% above our bank's Base Rate from time to time in force,
- calculated (daily) from the date of our account until payment,
- compounded on the first day of each month,
- and
- before and after any Judgment (unless a Court orders otherwise).

Indemnity

You are to indemnify us in full and hold us harmless from all expenses and liabilities we may incur (directly or indirectly including financing costs and including legal costs on a full indemnity basis) following any breach by you of any of your obligations under these Terms. This means that you are liable to us for losses we incur because you do not comply with these Terms. For example, we will charge you an administration fee where we receive a cheque from you which is subsequently not honoured or if we write to remind you that an account is overdue. If we instruct debt collection agents, we may also recover from you the fees we incur. Further details regarding these fees are available on request. We may claim those losses from you at any time and, if we must take legal action, we will ask the Court to make you pay our legal costs.
